UNION HITS BACK IN DYNAMITE CASE

Detective Burns Arrested for Complicity in Kidnapping of McNamara.

SECURING MORE EVIDENCE

Two Attorneys Arrested and Sent to Jail in Indianapolis—Developments in Grand Jury Investigation—Details.

Indianapolis, Ind., April 25.—Detective William J. Burns tonight was served with a warrant charging him with complicity in the alleged kidnapping of J. J. McNamara, secretary and treasurer of the International Association of Bridge & Structuaral Iron Workers, said to be implicated in the Los Angeles Times explosion. Three attorneys were arraigned today on the same charge and they spent two hours in jail because of delay in obtaining bonds for them. The attorneys imprisoned were Walter Drew and J. A. G. Badorf, of New York, assistant counsel for the National Erectors' Association, and W. Joseph Ford, assistant district attorney of Los Angeles.

Burns was arrested as he was going to the court of Justice of the Peace Manning to surrender himself. Constables had searched for him all day. He was released under $10,000 bond to appear before the grand jury. He was subpoenaed to testify tomorrow. Drew and Badorf and Ford were released from jail under bonds of the same amount. They waived preliminary examination and the matter was handed over to the grand jury. Frank Cox, chauffeur, charged with having assisted in the alleged kidnapping of McNamara, in that he drove the automobile in which McNamara was taken from here last Saturday, was released under $5,000 bond to appear before the grand jury. Constables with John Doe warrants were said to be seeking some of Burns' associates tonight.

These incidents and the continuing of the investigation of the Marion county grand jury were the main development in the probe of the conspiracy to collect dynamite in this city for the purpose of blowing up of structures being built by open contractors and a second alleged plot of agents of employers to discredit the Association of Bridge & Structural Iron Workers by "planting" dynamite and other evidence against, and by "railroading to California its secretary, J. J. McNamara."

After secret conferences of National officers of several labor organizations today, it was announced that definite plans are to be made for the assistance of the bridge and iron workers' association in defending itself and its secretary, J. J. McNamara.

Five witnesses were examined by the grand jury during the day. Supt. of Police Hyland and Captain of Detectives Holtz were the first summoned, and it is intimated that the grand jury purposes to learn if the police officers and police Judge Collins exceeded their authority in the part they took in the arrest and extradition of McNamara.

Attorney W. C. Appleman was the next witness called, probably for the purpose of learning the whereabouts of Miss Mary C. Dye, formerly private secretary of McNamara. According to the attorney the girl, in forcing the payment of a legal claim of $300 against McNamara told Appleman she had important information against McNamara and the iron workers association, which McNamara would not like to have known. The claim, according to Appleman, was paid.

New York, April 25.—Timothy Healy, president of the International Brotherhood of Stationery Firemen, and one of the best known labor leaders in the country, joined with Samuel Gompers here today in denouncing the arrest of the McNamara brothers and McManigal as a plot against labor by capital. During the recent car strike at Philadelphia he said, he had frustrated a plot to "plant" dynamite in his hotel room and then blow up one of the transit company's power houses.

"Knowing what they were willing to resort to in my own case, is it not liable for me to believe," he asked, "that the men under arrest are the victims of a similar and more successful conspiracy?

"It is not difficult for capital to find thugs who will commit crimes that are later fastened on the shoulders of honest men. The dynamitings that have been occurring all over the country during the past year are only a part of a plot that capital has framed, in a last desperate effort to crush labor unions."

Such Action Denounced.

Birmingham, Ala., April 25.—The Alabama Federation of Labor in session here today after a number of speeches denouncing the arrest of the men charged with the Los Angeles Times explosion, the State Federation forwarded a telegram to President Taft and to the governors of Indiana and California protesting against the arrest of J. J. McNarama at Indianapolis and petitioning the President to use his good offices in the prisoner's behalf. The telegram characterized McNarama's arrest as a "repetition of the outrageous Moyer, Haywood and Pettibone affair."

CELEBRATION MADE NOTABLE

New York, April 25.—Letters from King George, of England, and President Taft were read at Carnegie Hall tonight at a notable gathering in celebration of the three hundredth anniversary of the publication of the King James Version of the English Bible. The King congratulated the people of this country on "their share in this, our common heritage" and President Taft wrote that the "Bible's spirit has influenced American ideals in life, and laws and government."

The Right Rev. David H. Greer, bishop of the Episcopal Diocese of New York, presided at the ceremony which was held under the auspices of the American Bible Society. James Brice the British ambassador, read the King's letter and delivered an address. King George in his special message aid:

"I rejoice that America and England should join in commemorating the publication, three years ago, of that version of the Holy Scriptures which has so long held its own among English speaking peoples."

"Its circulation in our homes has done more perhaps than anything else on earth to promote among old and under the moral and religous welfare on either side of the Atlantic.

"The version which bears King James' name is so clearly interwoven in the history of British and American life that it is, right we should thank God for it together.

"I congratulate the President and the people of the United States upon their share in this, our common heritage."

New York, April 25.—In delivering a special message from King George V to the meeting in Carnegie Hall tonight to celebrate the 300th anniversary of the English translation of the Bible, Ambassador Brice, of Great Britain, spoke of the effect the translation had had upontheEnglish-speaking race. He said in part:

"The great event which we are met to commemorate was, like most great things, no sudden achievement of a group of gifted scholars, but the mature fruit of desires and purposes which had long been ripening in the minds of our ancestors.

"Much had been done towards an English Bible before King James the First commissioned his company of learned scholars for their task. Using the labors of their many predecessors, the translators produced a version, which was wonderfully exact for the scholarship of these days, so exact that after three centuries the changes which repeated collations of the manuscripts and repeated examination of the precise meaning of the Hebrew and Greek texts have led modern critics to make are few and unimportant in proportion to the whole.

"How much of the excellence of our great writers from Milton, Jeremy Taylor, and Baxter downwards is traceable to their knowledge of the diction of the Bible! We can feel it in four great masters of our tongue, who adorned the last generation to all of whom the Scriptures were familiar from childhood. We recognize it in the speeches of Jno. Bright and Abraham Lincoln, in the sermons and essay of Cardinal Newman, and in the earlier writings of Thomas Carlyle before his style became Germanized. The names of Lincoln and Bright suggest the immense and unique service which this translation rendered to men of our stock. It brought this wonderful storehouse of historical narrative and moral reflection, this incomparable record of the progress of the human spirit and of all the forms in which its conception of the relations of man to God were expressed within the reach of those who like Bright received no very wide education and those who like Lincoln received no education at all.

"British and American character have been largely formed by this book because it was in the seventeenth century the only book which all the people knew and all the people revered. And if our ancestors in that country and the next set an example to other countries in their love of freedom and their willingness to make sacrifices for freedom, yet knowing how to use freedom with moderation and justice, is this not largely due to the stimulus they received from the knowledge of the Scriptures in their own tongue and from the sense that freedom, like other gifts of God, is to be used with a sense of responsibility to God for its use

"These were some of the things which the Bible did for the individual soul. And it also formed the one common basis for the literature of the mediaoval and modern world. It was the common ground on which all Christians met; whatever their differences as to its meaning, the common starting point for their poetry and their ethics. Chaucer and Tasso and Goetho have their roots in it as well as Danto and Milton. It has been a visible symbol of the underlying moral unity of the civilized nations, even at times when some of them have least respected its authority.

"In the message from King George which I have read to you this evening the English version is truly called "our common heritage." It is such a heritage as brothers may enjoy in common, each having all and each re-

GOVERNMENT FIGHT ON COTTON CORNER

Case Against Patten and Others Will be Carried to Supreme Court.

INTENTIONS OF WICKERSHAM

Washington, April 25.—Attorney General Wickersham will appeal to the Supreme Court to sustain the so-called "cotton corner" counts in the government's indictment of James A. Patten, Eugene C. Scales, Frank B. Hayne, William P. Brown, and Robert M. Thompson, charged with leading the May cotton corner of 1910 on the New York Exchange.

Judge Noyes, in the United States Circuit Court for the Southern District of New York, sustained all of the counts in the indictment except those charging a corner to fix the price of raw cotton. He condemned the practice unreservedly, but held it did not come within the jurisdiction of the law upon which the indictments were based. Attorney General Wickersham's appeal is from that part of the decision.

Underlying the appeal, however, is a move regarded by the Department of Justice as far overshadowing in importance the cotton corner case itself. It is Mr. Wickersham s attempt to find a means to finally prevent the fixing of prices by speculation on exchanges, of commodities in daily use by the people.

A weapon more effective than any the Department of Justice now has for the prosecution of trusts and monopolies will be at hand if the Supreme Court rules that price fixing by corners of the markets comes within the purview of the anti-trust law.

President Taft and the Attorney General are receiving daily protests and resolutions from farmers' unions and granges in the South condemning the government for its prosecution of the cotton bulls and its apparent inaction regarding the bears.

Attorney General Wickersham made it plain today that should the Supreme Court support the Department of Justice in its contentions in the present appeal prosecutions would be immediately undertaken against the individuals of a combination whether the conspiracy were to bull or bear the prices of a commodity.

As to the cotton case, it is the position of the Department of Justice that speculation can have nothing to do wih the actual value of raw cotton in legitimate trade, which should be fixed by the normal laws of supply and demand for spinning purposes. In this particular instance the government prosecution is directed against men accused of bulling the price. The Department of Justice will prosecute bears with equal readiness where there is evidence of violations of law.

Attorney General Wickersham and Solicitor General Lehmann will personally direct the appeal in the cotton case.

Death of Wife of Mayor McNeill Defers Contest in Fayetteville.

(Special Star Telegram.)

Fayetteville, N. C., April 25.—On account of the death last night of the wife of Mayor James D. McNeill, who is a candidate to succeed himself as chief executive of this city, the second primary for the nomination of mayor was deferred today by the city Democratic executive committee until Thursday of this week between the same hours, 4 and 8 P. M.

The announcement of the death of Mrs. Elizabeth Strange McNeill, wife of Capt. James D. McNeill, was a profound shock to the community this morning. She passed away in Highsmith Hospital where she had been in extremis for several days. Mrs. McNeill was in the 58th year of her age and was a daughter of the late Capt. James W. Strange, of this city. She was greatly beloved wherever she was known and the sympathy of friends all over the State go out to the bereaved ones, these being her husband, Mayor James D. McNeill; four daughters, Mrs. H. N. Parsley, Misses Elizabeth and Minerva McNeill, of Fayetteville, and Mrs. Paul C. Collins, of Hillsboro; also three sons, James S., George and Robert S. McNeill, all of Fayetteville. In addition Mrs. McNeill is also survived by her mother, Mrs. Mary H. Strange; two sisters, Misses Maggie and Fannie Strange, and four brothers, Messrs. Robert, Jas. W., Samuel H. and John K. Strange. The funeral will be held at 11 o'clock tomorrow from St. John's Episcopal Church, of which she was a devoted communicant.

Little Rock, Ark., April 25.—The Senate today under a special order passed the Covington bill providing that all new companies, agencies, and associations shall supply all newspapers with service without discrimination and at the same rate, and further provides that the prosecuting attorney may prosecute telegraph companies for failure to supply such service. The measure will now go to the House.

PLANS FOR PEACE DISCUSSED

Insurrectos Leaders Held Conference Behind Closed Doors at El Paso. Envoy From Government is Awaited.

El Paso, Texas, April 25.—The peace mission met again today behind closed doors and discussed certain phases of the tentative terms laid down by the government.

Gen. Madero said that he expected to learn the name of the government's envoy or envoys soon. Until this is done, no real progress can be made, except that the revolutionary leaders may reach a clear understanding of the situation.

Washington, April 25.—Before departing for Juarez, Mexico, in response to a summons from Francisco I. Madero, Jr., to participate in the gathering of insurrecto leaders prior to the formal peace conferences that are to be held at some neutral point in Mexico with envoys from the Mexican government, Dr. Francisco Vasquez Gomez, head of the revolutionists agency, today wired Senor Manuel De Samacona. They met, it was explained, not as official representatives, but merely to pay a social call as Mexicans.

There was a cordial handshake and a smile as the two men parted and though neither would say later what subject had been discussed, exhibited and optimistic disposition toward future conditions in Mexico. The incidence regarded as an indication of the belief of both men that peace in Mexico is near at hand for in the troublous times of the examinations preceding the signing of the armistice, the representatives of the Federal and provisional government, of course, kept a distance apart.

Dr. Gomez declared today that the meeting place of the proposed peace conference had not yet been decided.

Orders of War Department.

Mexico City, April 25.—Notwithstanding officials continued mute of the formal acceptance of the armistice proposal today, news that the War Department had issued orders to commanders in the armistice zone to cease hostilities has official sanction. Formal instructions were said to have been sent to all commanders in the affected territory to observe the requirements of the armistice signed Sunday.

A new influence is to be brought to bear on Francisco I. Madero, Jr., in the interest of peace through the sending to San Antonio by the spiritualistic society of Mexico of which Madero is a member, of an emissary in the person of Rogell Fernandez Guell, Mexican consul in Baltimore.

Guell has been in the capital for some time conferring daily with leaders of the society and studying with them means for a re-establishment of peace.

Today a commission from its membership called upon the Minister of Foreign Relations and got proper credentials to enable Guell to reach Madero. The socfety is said to have more than 20 branches throughout the Republic with a membership of many thousands. Guell left for the North tonight.

Interest in the peace movement continues keen. While many still appear skeptical, a general belief seems to prvail that the chances are even that a permanent peace agreement will be reported.

Mexicans generally are beginning to realize that the old order of things has passed away and that they have been entrusted with the privilege of governing themselves.

Today a commission arrived in the capital from Guadalajara to stimulate interest in a political party, the members purpose to form. Their advent and their intention are not important except as indications of the spirit of free speech which has made itself apparent in the chamber of deputies, which has adopted that portion of the Bulnes anti-re-election bill which prohibits the re-election of the President and thus even if Diaz serves out his term it is certain that another man will soon be at the head of the Mexican nation. There appears to be no doubt that the administration is sincere in the suggestion that the electoral laws be revised, and all things

WAR WITH JAPAN DECLARED ABSURD

Notables Attend Dinner of American Asiatic Society in New York.

FRIENDSHIP IS EMPHASIZED

Secretary Knox and Japanese Ambassador Among the Speakers — Taft's Letter Refers to the Recent Treaty.

New York, April 25.—Philander C. Knox, Secretary of State; Baron Yasuya Uchida, the Japanasee ambassador; Congressman William Sulzer and Seth Low, were the principal speakers at the thirteenth annual dinner of the American Asiatic Society, held here tonight. One hundred and twenty-five diners, including a sprinkling of Japanese attended and there were cheers whenever a speaker declared that "war between this country and Japan was unthinkable."

Seth Low, president of the society, read letters of regret from President Taft, Senator Lodge, James Brice, the British ambassador, and Andrew Carnegie and others. All expressed the sentiment that nothing exists in the relations between Japan and the United States to disturb peace.

President Taft wrote in part as follows

"The importance of the treaty with Japan, the conclusion of which you are assembled to celebrate cannot be gauged solely from the standpoint of its attractiveness commercially. The treaty was recently negotiated and ratified is additional guarantee of the friendship which has so long existed between the two countries, friendship so strong that we can well regard with complacence even the mischievous and malicious rumors so particularly circulated by friends of neither government and which so utterly lack foundation in fact."

Secretary Knox proposed the health of the Emperor of Japan, which was drunk amid shouts of "banzai!" It is time that the high-minded people of both nations deliberately closed their ears to false reports and resolutely refuse to allow their feelings to be reffled by the vaporings o fsensationalists, said Secretary Knox. In case of misunderstandings let us suspend judgment and give each other the benefit of the doubt until the truth is known. And let us not take things too seriouesly."

Baron Uchida returned the compliment to Mr. Knox and characterized war talk as "absurd, nonesensical and silly."

"Japan and the United States are friends and will continue to be friends, the Homer Lea's and their sympathizers to the contrary notwithstanding," declared Representative Sulzer, responding to the toast, "Peace, Friendship and Good will between Japan and th United States." In the interest of the peace and of progress and of civilization, he said, Japan and the United States must ever be friends, and "war between these two countries is preposterous and unthinkable."

Ambassador Brice wrote: "I trust that the dinner will be successful and i will do anything that I can to still and dispel the absurd notion of hostility between the United States."

"I cannot imagine a state of mind of any American," wrote Andrew Carnegie," who does not hail Japan as our friend, nor that of any Japanese who does not love the first Western friend he ever had. All these rumors of bad feeling between the two lands pass by me as idle winds."

MOUNTAIN CRASH DENIED.

Believed That Report About "Caesar's Head" is Erroneous.

Greenville, S. C., April 25.—That the statement conveyed in a dispatch last night that the mountain peak, known as "Caesar's Head" had been overturned by an earthquake shock last Friday night, is erroneous, is the belief of citizens here, who have been in the neighborhood of the famous resort in the past few days. Parties who returned to Greenville today after spending Saturday and Sunday within a very short distance of the head, report that nothing out of the ordinary had occurred. It is believed here that the overturning of some other rock in that section of the Blue Ridge was the occasion for the report. "Caesar's Head" is in South Carolina, about 26 miles from Greenville.

TRYING THE TIGERS.

Indefinite Term of Recorder's Court Hearing Cases in Durham.

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Durham, N. C., April 25.—The trial of the band of blind tigers caught last week in the famous raid is still in progress, and it is thought that there will be enough cases to carry the trial far into next month. It has been learned that the North Carolina Anti-Saloon League is behind the move, and the presence in court of R. L. Davis, superintendent of the State League, has created a great deal of interest. Nearly all of the lawyers of the city have been drawn into the fight on one side or the other, and they are getting rich off the project.

MAY DEVELOP A PARTY BREAK

Differences Between Regulars and Insurgents in the Senate Grows Serious—Four Points Yet to be Settled.

Washington, April 25.—Differences between the Regular and Insurgent Republican senators over the organization of committees appear far from being healed and a caucus called for tomorrow afternoon to consider the assignments agreed upon by the Committee on Committees may develop an absolute party break. Two sessions of the committee were held today and the Regulars positively declined to meet Insurgent demands which they declared to be unreasonable.

The Regulars have a large majority in the caucus and it is not improbable that the Insurgents may carry their demands to the floor of the Senate, which leaders in both factions admit would bring about a party split.

Four points of differences remain to be settled. LaFollette wants to go on inter-State Commerce; Cummins on Finance; Bristow, on Foreign Relations and Bourne, on Appropriations. It is stated tonight that the demand for places on these committees will be rejected. The regulars insist that they have given the insurgents everything to which they are entitled under the rules laid down—that of length of service which gives to this minority the choice of a large number of important places.

Insurgent Republicans charge that the Regulars are packing the Finance and Inter-State Commerce Committees, the first named to prevent assaults upon the Payne-Aldrich bill and the principle of high protection and the latter to keep railroad legislation out of the hands of insurgents whom they claim have made studies of this subject. They insist that they are fighting for an opportunity to impress their progressive views upon the policies of the govrnmnt on the great questions connected with the tariff and the regulations of the railroads.

What the outcome will be in the contest tomorrow is not clear. The Regulars declared tonight that they would not yield another inch to the Insurgents.

In spite of diligent efforts to prevent the disclosure of the assignments as agreed upon by the Committee on Committees it became known the majority of membership of the great committees is as follows

Appropriations—Warren, of Wyoming, chairman; Perkins, of California; Gallinger, New Hampshire; Curtis, ansas; Gamble, South Dakota; Smoot, Utah; Wetmore, Rhode Island; Dixon, Montana, and probably Bourne, of Oregon.

Finance — Penrose, Pennsylvania, chairman; Cullom, Illinois; Lodge, of Massachusetts; McCumber, North Dakota; Smoot, Utah; Gallinger, New Hampshire; Clark, Wyoming; Heyburn, Idaho, and LaFollette, Wisconsin. The minority members of this Committee, which has charge of all tariff bills, will be as follows: Bailey, Texas; Simmons, North Carolina; Stone, Missouri; Kern, Indiana; Williams, Mississippi, and Johnson, of Maine.

Foreign Relations—Cullom, Illinois, chairman; Frye, Maine; Lodge, Massachusetts; Smith, Michigan; Root, of New York, Borah, Idaho; Burton, Ohio; Sutherland, Utah, and one place to be filled.

Inter-State Commerce—Clapp, Minnesota, chairman; Cullom, Illinois; Crane, Massachusetts; Nixon, Nevada; Cummins, Iowa; Oliver, Pennsylvania; Townsend, Michigan, and Lippitt, Rhode Island.

Judiciary—Clark, Wyoming, chairman; Nelson, Minnesota; Dillingham, Vermont; Sutherland, Utah; Brandegee, Connecticut; Borah, Idaho; Root New York; Cummins, Iowa; and Brown, Nebraska.,

Many changes will occur in the chairmanships of the other committees.

The entire committee slate, including Democratic places, will be presented to the Senate Thursday.

COMPULSORY EDUCATION WINS.

In Special Election Held at Harrisburg, Va., Yesterday.

Harrisburg, Va., April 25.—In a special election held here today Harrisburg decided in favor of compulsory education by a vote of 348 to 11.

Harrisburg is the second place in Virginia to vote on this question since the passage of the referendum enabling act by the General Asembly of Virginia of 1908. Allegheny county voted in favor of compulsory education about a year ago.

The schools, pulpit and press here championed the cause of compulsory education while the opposition was principally among individuals, who balked at the negro phase of the question of who took the extreme ground that the measure was a violation of "personal liberty."

The proposed law will compel the attendance of children between 8 and 12 years old, in the nearest school for three months in the year.

Washington, April 25.—Representative Ellerbee, of South Carolina, introduced a bill providing for the erection in Marion, S. C., of a monument to commemorate the patriotic services of Brigadier General Francis Marion, a hero of the American Revolution.

DEMOCRATIC BILL ROUGHLY HANDLED

Enemies of Free List Measure Opened Attack in House Yesterday.

MANN ONE OF THE SPEAKERS

Declared That Free List Might be Stretched to Include Many Imports Which Now Bring Revenue—General Debate.

Washington, April 25.—The Democratic free list bill, characterized by the Republicans on the Ways and Means Committee as "political soothing syrup," was roughly handled in the House of Representatives this afternoon by its political enemies on the Republican side.

Mr. Underwood, Democratic chairman of the Ways and Means Committee, introduced it to the House in an hour's speech shortly after the session convened at noon. Then it was left to the mercies of Representative Mann, of Illinois, leader of the Republican side, and the things Mr. Mann said about it gave both sides of the House food for much debate, and occasion for much comment and criticism.

Mr. Mann declared that the free list bill was drawn inaccurately, indefinitely and with such general language that it might be stretched to include almost half of the imports on which the United States now collects tariff revenues.

The free list bill puts agricultural implements "of any kind and description" on the free list. Mr. Mann expressed the belief it could be stretched to include the free entry of saws, axes, forks, garden hose, hay knives and almost everything else that a farmer, horticulturist, gardner or tiller of the soil ever uses.

He said the bill was drawn that it would admit free leather from which the farmer's shoes were made, but excluded that from which his wife's shoes were made. It put a premium on foreign labor, he said, permitting these special kinds or leather to come in free when they were partly made up.

In putting agricultural implements on the free list said Mr. Mann, the Democrats would let the International Harvester Company dump into the United States the implements it made with foreign labor in its factories in France, Germany, Russia and Canada.

"These products will be sold here," he said, 'not at lower prices but at the same price, and yet the result would be that they would be made by foreign labor."

Chairman Underwood and other Democrats did not attempt a reply to the general attack upon the bill made by Minority Leader Mann.

Mr. Gardner, of Massachusetts, attacked the measure and the Democratic policy of promising to "reduce the cost of living without reducing wages paid in the United States. "He asserted that in putting articles on the free list, the Democrats had discriminated against the farmers and manufacturers of the Northern States, while leaving protective duties on tobacco, sugar, rice, oranges and other articles produced in the Southern States."

Messrs. Adair, of Indiana; Russell, of Missouri, and Adamson, of Georgia, spoke in favor of the measure.

Mr. Adamson declared that after Mr. Mann's attack upon the bill he had gone to Chairman Underwood to see if they ought not to call a Democratic caucus and fix up the measure, but that Mr. Underwood assured him the bill wa all right.

TEDDY IN NEW ROLE.

Wants Pardon for Chicago Man Victim of Criminals.

Joliet, Ill., April 25.—Theodore Roosevelt came to the aid of former Police Inspector Edward McCann, of Chicago today, and in a letter urged Governor Deneen to make a complete investigation of the charges that sent McCann to the penitentiary. McCann was convicted in Chicago of accepting bribes from resort keepers in the West Side levee. The testimony against McCann was almost entirely that of inmates and keepers of resorts.

A letter to the governor was read before the State Board of Pardons and was accompanied by appeals from 35 Chicagoans including settlement workers, attorneys, preachers and police officers.

Mr. Roosevelt asserted that while police commissioner of New York City he had learned how far criminals would go to bring dishonor and disgrace on the officials who had courage enough to enforce the law against them. Chairman Eckhart, of the pardon board said a decision would be announced later.

Kansas City, April 25.—John Coulon bantam weight champion of the world, and Eddie O'Keefe, of Philadelphia, fought ten fast rounds to a draw tonight.

Philadelphia, April 25.—Washington was defeated here today by 11 to 2, all the visitors pitchers being ineffective. The pennant which Philadelphia won last season was unfurled for the first time in the presence of a large crowd. Before the game there was a band concert and a parade in which Governor Tener, President Johnson, of the American League, President Noyes, of Washington, and both teams participated. The game was featured by the hard hitting of Murphy and Baker, the former getting five safeties and each batsman putting the ball over the fence for a home run.

BARON SPEAKS FOR PEACE.

Delivered Address at St. Paul—The Features.

St. Paul, Minn., April 25.—Baron D'Estournelles De Constant, of France, spoke on "Universal Peace" before a distinguished audience here tonight. He said that war between the United States and Japan "is an absudity, a nightmare, a bad dream."

St. Paul, Minn., April 25.—In speaking on "Peace" today, Baron d'Estournelles de Constant quoted the following passages from the 1903 program of the International Arpitration Party in the French Parliament:

"Some people profess to believe that we, the supporters of arbitration, would like to see it applied to all questions, and that even if we were threatened with invasion we should not call out the whole armed strength of the nation but humbly ask to have the matter decided by a tribunal—a proposal which the enemy would be sure to reject. It is time to explain, as clearly and unmistakably as possible that, so far from being mere dreamers, philosophers or men without a country, we have a clear conception of our duty and our responsibility. We believe that the policy we advocate for Europe is as clear, as prudent, as positive and as full of promise as the policy now followed is obscure and fraught with confusion and danger.

"Universal peace and simultaneous disarmament will never be anything but dreams, unless science and the strictest and most methodical means are employed to hasten their coming. It may already be said that disarmament will merely be the last stage of pacific evolution. Between this last stage and the aspirations we now entertain there is many a mile to be traveled, and always at the same pace. It is useless to look for disarmament unless we first try the effect of a progressive reduction of armaments; and this reduction, itself, will be necessarily preceded by a limitation, a halt in the increase of armaments. This limitation, however, implies great changes in the relations among the powers and these changes must be set down in treaties. Such treaties imply reciprocal recessions, due to a respect for justice and the consciousness of a new solidarity between the contracting States. Such treaties cannot be successfully carried out, nor even negotiated unless public opinion is thoroughly prepared beforehand.

"On these lines, our program becomes very simple and clear. Our one object is to bring international arbitration into general acceptance and induce governments to resort to a reasonable and honorable way of settling, not all conflicts, but the largest possible number of them, by equitable means."

LAURINBURG NEWS.

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Laurinburg, N. C., April 25.—This morning about 4 o'clock the fire whistle spread terror over Laurinburg. At first view a tremendous fire seemed to be raging in the business section. Upon investigation it was found that the building of the negro hotel located just east of Main street, in what is known as "Bloodfield," and which figured in the recent homicide, was rapidly burning to the ground. The fire was speedily extinguished but the building was already burned to the extent that it cannot be repaired. It was a large two-story wooden building and had been standing only a few years. The loss falls heavily upon the owner.

The officials and citizens of Laurinburg were not well pleased with the reputation of the Smith Shows, a carnival, which reached here yesterday morning from Lumberton, so the aggregation was given notice that it must move on to some other place. It mover.

The May term of Scotland criminal Superior Court convenes here Monday with Judge Justice presiding. The docket is large and the entire week will be consumed in clearing it. The cases of chief interest are the three homicide cases, the most aggrevated of which is the one which occurred in the famous "Bloodfield," near the heart of town in January, when a negro, Hood Dudley, was killed. In the case four defendants, Duck Jones, principal, and Will Knight, Arch McNair and Odessa Forde, accessories, are held for trial.

Messrs. Avenger & Phillips, who represent the "Overland" and the Herndon Motor Co., which represents the "Franklin" are exhibiting new shipments of their respective cars. The automobile business has grown extensively and the number of sales are expected to reach 100 during 1911.

The building was completely destroyed and several residences adjoining were damaged.

VIOLATED ELECTION LAWS.

New Orleans, April 25.—Paul Felix, former mayor of Kenner, La., and W. W. Stiles, former deputy sheriff of Jefferson Parish, were today taken to the St. James Parish jail to begin the service of sentences of six and 11 months, respectively, for alleged violation of the Federal election laws.

It was alleged that Felix and Stiles, objecting to the activity in the Congressional election of 1908 of Col. E. O'Sullivan, a well known attorney, assaulted him and cut off his beard.

The two were convicted of violating the election laws in interfering with a voter in the exercise of his franchise privileges. In addition to the prison sentences, the defendants were fined $1,000 each.

New Measure on Basis of Old Reported in House Yesterday.

Washington, April 25.—A bill for the re-apportionment of the House of Representatives on the basis of 433 members was reported favorably to the House late today by Chairman Houston, of the House Committee on Census. The size recommended for the House is the same as was provided by the Crumpacker bill, which passed the House at the last session and is an increase of 41 over the present membership. The Houston bill does not contain the provision of the Crumpacker bill, authorizing the Secretary of Commerce and Labor to re-apportion the House after future National censuses. If the Houston bill becomes law the representation in the House of Representatives will be one member for each 211,877 of inhabitants.

THE SENATORIAL CAMPAIGN

The Way It is Doped Out in Raleigh—New Enterprises for Wilmington—Bankers and Merchants' Dates Conflict.

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Raleigh, N. C., April 25.—"If I am to be a candidate for the United States Senate the people must run me," is the way ex-Governor Aycock expressed himself today in conversation with a close friend. The ex-Governor is known to be averse to a long, drawn out and strenuous campaign. He don't mind the strenuosity, it is said, but he don't want such a long seige of it as would be the case should he come out at this time with the primary to be held way next Summer or Fall.

However, there are many of his friends who believe the people of the State should under the circumstances, be advised as to whether or not he will undertake the race. That Senator Simmons is standing for re-election is officially known and that Governor Kitchin is in the race against him is settled to the extent that he has so stated to numerous friends with his definite public announcement only awaiting whatever he may consider the most opportune moment to take the whole people into his confidence. Then there is the possibility of some others getting into the race and Aycock's friends want him to get in on the ground floor. This may bring from his some definite statement of the possibility of his making the race, although it is not expected that he will come out in a formal announcement of his candidacy for a great while yet.

Along with other Senatorial talk there comes some persistent expressions from the "politically wise" that Chief Justice Clark not only proposes to stand for the Senatorship, but that he is now busy with the "mending of his fences." Indeed, that he is actually running for the Senate so far as steady work among the people as he can reach them in a quiet way is concerned. Many believe that whether ex-Governor Aycock gets in the race or not Judge Clark will be in the running and will put up a strenuous campaign. Thus far he has not expressed himelf in such a way as would bring about the presentation of his real attitude in a newspaper way.

The North Carolina Bankers' Association and the North Carolina Merchants' Association will both be in session at Hendersonville during the week of June 20th and there has arisen some question about the accommodations that will be available at that time. State Commissioner of Labor and Printing M. L. Shipman gives the assurance that there will be ample accommodation and that there need not be the least uneasiness on that score. The bankers are to hold their session out at unga ake and the Merchants' Association will meet in the town.

The American Agricultural and Chemical Society, of New London, Conn., having $50,000,000 capital domesticates in this State with principal Carolina headquarters at Wilmington for the manufacture of fertilizers and chemicals with the by-products. R. F. Warren, Jr., is to be in charge of the Wilmington enterprice.

Another notable domestication is The Dixie Realty Co., of Minnesota, capital $250,000 and principal North Carolina headquarters at Clarendon, Columbus county.

There came today to Adjutant General Leinster, of the North Carolina National Guard, a letter from Chas. E. LeGrand to the effect that he has a small pocket Bible that was picked up on the Civil War battlefield around Newbern. It has on the fly-leaf the name Lt. C. A. Boon, Co. D, 35th Regiment, North Carolina Infantry. The date is December '61 and there is inscribed "Presented by Mrs. C." K. Caldwell." Mr. LeGrand desires to locate some interested kinspeople, if not the soldier who lost the book, and return it to them.

Harry English and Ethel Paris, two small children, have been brought from High Point to the State laboratory of Hygienne for Pasteur treatment to prevent hydrophobia. They were bitten by a cat Sunday. Two others here for treatment are Jno. Winstead, of Roxboro, nine years old, and Miriam Hookey, of Ruffin, who were both bitten by dogs found to have the rabies.

A third squad of officers of the North Carolina National Guard was designated today by Adjutant General Leinster, under direction from War Department, to go to San Antonio for camp and maneuver training with the regulars. They are Capt. J. C. Freeman, Third Infantry, Burlington; Capt. A. L. Bullwinkle, First Infantry Gastonia; Capt. J. N. Pearce, Quartermaster, Second Infantry, Wilson; Lieut. Col. A. K. Tayloe, Washington, of Medical Corps. These are to report at San Antonio May 8th.

LUMBERTON PRIMARY.

A. E. White Wins Mayorality By A Small Majority—Others.

Lumberton, N. C., April 25.—The town primary which was held here today resulted in the nomination of A. E. White for mayor by a majority of 39; M. W. Floyd, Howard Morrison and W. J. Prevatt were nominated for commissioners. The election was the hardest contest ever seen here, both sides fighting for every inch of ground. It is to be regretted that the election was not as clean as it should have been. Men not residing in town were present to work as though they were hired. One man swore he was a resident of Lumberton and later telegrams were received from another town stating that the man had a wife and children there, paid taxes and voted there. An attempt was made to vote several who were non-residents or otherwise not entitled to vote. Two or three fisticuffs were narrowly averted.

SAVE COLORED BOYS.

An Appeal in Behalf of Colored Reform School.

To the Lovers of Humanity:

We have in the State of North Carolina hundreds of colored boys and girls who are brought into court and are convicted of petty crimes, and sent to the jails and chain-gangs, and thrown in contact with hardened criminals.

To save these unfortunate youths, they should be placed in a school where they can be trained to work and become respectable men and women. For this purpose, the Colored Reform School Association has purchased a farm of three hundred and sixty acres of good land in Mecklenburg county, and has paid $2,000 on it—and now have it in their possession. We have already in our charge several boys who have been turned over to us by the courts. Our charter from the Legislature gives the judges of all the courts in this State the right to turn over to us for this school every boy under the age of 14 years who is convicted of any crime. It also gives us the right to receive boys who are not convicted of crime, on the application of the parent or guardian.

As we have the land, we need at once about $2,000 to put up the buildings to accommodate these boys and save them from the prisons.

We therefore appeal to every man, woman and child, and every church, Sunday School, missionary society, secret society, all clubs and organizations of all kinds, both white and colored, to send us a contribution, small or large, on or before June 1st, 1911, or as soon thereafter as possible, and help us to put up this building. The windows in this building will cost $5 and the doors will cost $10, the rooms will cost $50 each, and the bricks will cost 10 cents each. We hope every church will pay for one door, and every Sunday School will pay for one window, and every individual will pay for at least ten bricks, and every child will pay for at least one brick. We hope some society or individual will pay for one room, which will be named for them. Bricklayers will cost about $2.50 per day; we hope every society will pay for at least two days' work, which will be $5.

Those who send in first the doors and windws will be named in honor of them. Send in your money as soon as possible, as we may not have enough for all, so first come, first served.

We hope everybody will have a hand in this building, which will be called the "Memorial Building."

Send remittance by money order or check to C. H. Watson, solicitor, Charlotte, N. C., or Mr. W. L. Jenkins, Southern Loan & Savings Bank, Charlotte, N. C., and a receipt will be sent you for same.

WHITEVILLE PERSONALS.

General News Notes From the Columbus County Capital—Court.

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Whiteville, N. C., March 25.—Messrs. Fred Dempsey and Luther A. Blue, of Wilmington, spent Sunday in Whiteville.——Miss Fannie McCallum, a trained nurse of Wilmington, who has been waiting on little LeGrande Lyon, returned home Sunday. The little boy is fast improving.——Mr. Robert N. White has taken a position with the Bank of Tabor during the berry season.——Mrs. Seth L. Smith, one of the most popular ladies in Whiteville, is quite sick.——Mr. J. T. McKenzie, who has such a severe spell, is out again.——Mr. R. E. L. Brown, who has been spending the Winter at Hendersonville on account of his health, is improving very fast and is expected home in June.

Judge Cooke has appointed Mr. John Carter court stenographer for Columbus county.

Mr. W. E. McDaniel yesterday turned over a check of $2,000 to the heirs of the late Mr. Simp. Lewis, amount of life insurance he carried.

The frost Sunday night did not injure berries in the slightest degree, or vegetables either. Parties in town from the country say their berries are all right, and the cold snap was really beneficial in keeping back the weevil. The berries in the fresh land around Tabor are free from the weevil and are extra fine. The only thing that growers fear is the bottom may drop out of the prices before they can pick and sell the crop.

TOUR TO WASHINGTON.

Norfolk Southern Plans Delightful Trip to Capital.

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Raleigh, N. C., April 25.—The Norfolk Southern Railroad announces today that they will operate a personally conducted excursion from various points to Washington, D. C., on Monday, May 29th, 1911, under the direction of Prof. Frank M. Harper, Superintendent of Public Schools at Raleigh. Such an excursion in this section is an innovation, although they have been operated in the North by a number of railway lines. There is no place in this country of more general interest than the section in and around Washington, and as it will be under the direction of one of the foremost educators in the State, it will be of great interest to all who desire to make such a trip under the unusual conditions that are offered. Prof. Harper, who is well known as an educator, has made such trips before, and is fully conversant with all the details that go to make such an outing a pleasant as well as an educational one. It is said that not only will students and teachers from all over this section take advantage of the offer, but numbers of teachers throughout the State have already written Prof. Harper to make arrangements to join the party.

Special Pullman sleeping cars will be engaged, and every little want and necessity will be looked after by an experienced passenger agent of railroad company who will accompany the party from the time they leave Raleigh until they return. Prof. Harper expect to take about 200 students and teachers on the trip.

The Catholic Bazaar evenings next week. Meet your friends there. **

BEFORE GOODWIN'S COMMITTEE

(By H. E. C. Bryant.)

Washington, April 25.—One of the most interesting investigations launched here is that of the Committee on Reform in the Civil Service, Representative Godwin, of North Carolina, chairman. It has been said frequently recently that Postmaster General Hitchcock was turning off railway mail clerks because they joined labor unions.

The storm center of this controversy is St. Paul, where two men were discharged, it is alleged, because of their affiliation with American Federation of American organizations. Messrs. Samuel Gompers and Frank Morrison, two of the leading labor union men of the country, have taken the matter up with Senators Cummins and LaFollette and Representatives Godwin. Some day soon Mr. Godwin will introduce a resolution in the House asking for authority to subpoena and swear witnesses, the purpose of this being to get General Hitchcock and others of his department on the stand. In giving the union side of the matter before the Godwin committee last week. Mr. Gompers said that it could be proven that the department had men traveling through the country telling mail clerks that they would have to give up their positions if they oined labor organizations. He will bring witnesses, he declared, to swear to this effect.

There is more rejoicing in the Democratic camp. Two more North Carolinians went to work this morning. D. Mc. Matheson, of Taylorsville, will be a messenger at one of the doors of the House and W. E. Hooks, of Fremont, has a position in the House filing room. Representative Doughton placed one and Representative Faison, the other. Mr. Matheson was here during the Cleveland rule. He will hold the place while the extra session lasts. Mr. Hooks is a nephew of Governor Aycock. For a time he was engrossing clerk of the State legislature. Both Mr. Matheson and Mr. Hooks went to work yesterday.

Mr. Iredell Meares and daughter, Miss Meares, are here, stopping at Congress Hall. They will return to Wilmington within the next few days.

Chairman A. H. Eller, of the Democratic State Committee, is expected here tomorrow. He has some business before the Inter-State Commerce Commission.

GIVES UP SECOND BODY.

Two Annapolis Women Drowned—The Mystery Cleared.

Annapolis, Md., April 25. — Spa Creek gave up the second of the bodies to the dual mystery that has baffled the local authorities for nearly two weeks, when the body of Miss Alice Shore, who suddenly disappeared with her younger sister, Mrs. Dora H. White, on the night of April 5, and whose body was recovered on Sunday, came to the surface today. Whether the women came to their deaths by drowning, by accident or suicidal intent or by violence is still being probed by the authorities.

FREE SAMPLE CURED OLD PERSON'S BOWEL TROUBLE

One of the most remarkable proofs of the unusual laxative merit contained in Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin is that it is effective not only in people in the prime of life, but at the extremes of ages. As many letters are received from mothers regarding the cures of children, as from men and women of sixty, seventy and eighty years of age. It must be truly a wonderful laxative.

In the cure of constipation and bowel trouble in old people it has no equal. It corrects the constipation, dispels the headache, biliousness, gas, drowsiness after eating, etc. People advancing in years should see to it that their bowels move freely, and if they do not to take Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin. You can prolong your life by healthy bowel action. Clogged bowels invite disease. Women about to pass the menstrual period cannot do better than use Syrup Pepsin several times a week until the system has settled to its future condition.

Among the strongest supporters of Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin are Mr. W. G. Zorn of New Decatur, Ala. and Mr. George S. Spaulding of the National Soldiers' Home, Kansas, both elderly men. The regular size bottles can be bought of any druggist at fifty cents and one dollar, but a free sample bottle can be had by sending your address to the doctor.

Dr. Caldwell does not feel that the purchase of his remedy ends his obligation. He has specialized in stomach, liver and bowel diseases for over forty years and will be pleased to give the reader any advice on the subject free of charge. All are welcome to write him. Whether for the medical advice or the free sample address him Dr. W. B. Caldwell, 541 Caldwell building, Monticello, Ill.

There is a great deal of knocking in Wilmington—on new houses being built downtown and all over town.

The Bath Tub trust is trying to put the blame on the plumber. The plumbers are not saying anything and no doubt can afford to take the blame.

Says the Jacksonville Times-Union: "Our choral society is more than a hummer." Probably Jacksonvillians with ears hope the society will be given over to so-lows.

Dr. Hauph claims to have discovered Eve's protest against the domination of man. So it must be Eve who set the pace for declaring independence and acting accordingly.

An Indianapolis woman found a burglar under her bed. This shows that keeping everlastingly at it will get its reward in the long run. Women never tire looking under the bed.

Inquires the Atlanta Journal: "Where is the old fashioned beau who wore a diamond ring around his necktie?" He is here yet, but he has probably exchanged the ring for a few meal tickets.

The American Philosophical Society announces "discoveries in cosmical evolution leading to the development of an entirely new science, the Science of Cosmogony." Uh-uh! We got bit on Dr. Cook not so long ago in the matter of alleged discoveries.

A button on a man's vest turned a bullet and saved his life a few days ago. Of course, a suspender button may also prove to be a life preserver, and ladies should also take that into consideration while they are considering how important an insignificant button may become.

Reports from New York and Boston are to the effect that "lobsters are cheaper." It is hard, however, to get a lobster to feel cheap anywhere. The girls seem to favor lobsters during the entire season at the seaside. One kind of lobster is the fellow who gets the best of the other fellow.

Dr. Pierson, of Chicago, at the age of 91, has given the last of his fortune of $6,000,000 in benefactions. He would give every cent of it to be 21 instead of 91, wherefore we can begin to conceive what youth is worth. Money cannot buy youth, hence it is priceless. Yet some men waste their youth.

On Friday last Governor Woodrow Wilson, of New Jersey, appointed Samuel Kalish to a seat on the Supreme Court bench of that State. He is said to be one of the leading lawyers of New Jersey and is the first Jew to have had such an honor paid him in that State. Several Southern States have years ago taken the lead of New Jersey in that particular.

In a speech in Washington on Sunday President Taft resented a demand from various religious organizations that he deny his Unitarin faith. He declined to do so but insisted that such insistence was an indication that the doctrine of the church should be more generally disseminated as he declared the Unitarian church typified broad, liberal, tolerant Christianity.

The probability is that the territory dispute between North Carolina and Tennessee will end in favor of North Carolina, owing to the discovery of new evidence, survey data and documents. North Carolina will get about sixty square miles of territory over which Tennessee has been exercising jurisdiction. Now is the time for good Tennesseeans to apply for admission into North Carolina, so the whole State can come along with the disputed strip.

THE MAKING OF WILMINGTON.

There is great work ahead in the making of Wilmington. Who is going to do the work? Whose business is it? Why it's everybody's business.

If we are going to effectually promote the progress and development of Wilmington it will require the assistance of every man, woman and child in the city. In the making of a city there are various factors to be considered and many lines upon which work must be done. Some of us ought to specialize in the promotion of commercial progress, some should devote their attention to industrial development, some should make a specialty of civic advancement, and the educational, social, moral and health factors should be looked after as well as every other feature of city development. We should lose no time in advancing a plan for a well rounded Wilmington, neglecting not a single features that will make a greater Wilmington, a busier Wilmington, a healthier Wilmington, a cleaner Wilmington, a fairer Wilmington, a more desirable Wilmington, a clever Wilmington, a hospitable Wilmington, a happy Wilmington, a successful Wilmington. We must work for:

A Bigger Port.

A Greater Jobbing and Distributing Centre.

A Manufacturing City.

A Progressive Community.

A Growing, Well Rounded Wilmington.

Whose business is it to make Wilmington everything it ought to be? It is everybody's business, for it will require the united interest, co-operation and work of everybody. Not only the men but the women and children are important elements in making the complete Wilmington we ought to have.

There is work for all, and everybody should be willing to work along some line for the upbuilding of the city. The work requires and demands the aid and assistance of all the people of Wilmington. Everyone of us must be convinced of that. Everyone of us owes a duty to Wilmington. Let us all get busy and take a hand in doing something for Wilmington.

How can everybody get down to work for Wilmington? Why, through organization, that's how. The only way to round up anything and accomplish a purpose is to get together. We must not only get together in spirit, but we must get together in purpose, and, the most important of all—we must unite in our efforts, our plans and our work. We have to work together and to pull together.

Organization is the only way by which we can unite in building Wilmington, and so far as the citizens of Wilmington are concerned we have one great organization which can form the nucleus of a greater organization, having auxiliaries, if need be, in the way of clubs, leagues, sections, and subsidiary bodies all working toward one harmonious end, each doing a definite work and following the general plan in which all must take a hand.

The organization around which we can rally for this work is the Wilmington Chamber of Commerce, a business organization long in the field and organized upon a systematic business basis. Comparatively speaking, that organization is a small body. That is, its membership embraces but a small proportion of the business men and citizens of Wilmington. The membership of the Chamber of Commerce is now 140, whereas, according to the registration for the approaching city election, more than three thousand men have registered as voters. Nearly every man of that 3,000 can do some work for Wilmington, but if only 500 of them unite with the Chamber of Commerce it would make a powerful and effective organization. It is not too much to say that at least 1,000 Wilmington men ought to be working for Wilmington. Let every man get in the game and get a move on him.

The Chamber of Commerce is deeply interested in Wilmington, but no member of it ought to be any more concerned in the development of the city than the hundreds of businessmen and citizens who hold aloof and put the work off on the shoulders of others. Many shoulders to the wheel will get it out of the rut.

The Chamber has a plan for getting down to work and a part of that plan is to secure the co-operation of the live men of Wilmington. The membership of that body has been so classified that every interest in the city can be represented. The annual fees for the different membrship classes are $48, $24 and $12. The monthly dues would be $4, $2 and $1, and nearly every live man in the city ought to come in under one class or the other.

Beginning next week the membership committee will make a canvass to secure members, and everywhere the canvassers go they should be overwhelmed with the rush to get on the list. The canvassers should be greeted with enthusiasm, and they should not only enroll names by the hundred but the men of Wilmington should assure them that they will attend meetings and work along any line that may be effective. The Chamber needs men and money for the work, and the membership canvass means that it is appealing to our citizens and business men to hold up its hands. To leave the Chamber without the support, the aid and the co-operation that it asks, and has every reason to expect, will indicate a reactionary instead of a progressive community.

Let the spirit to be manifested be one indicating a live citizenship, enthusiastic in behalf of the unity that is the secret in the success of the undertakings of men. It must be remembered that Wilmington is in competition with other cities in the race for development. We must not be content to bring up the rear of the procession, but we should be united and determined to march in the vanguard of progress. The unity of our efforts and forces will mean more rapid and greater progress for the community. Wilmington can't make its citizens but its citizens surely will have to make Wilmington.

The Chamber of Commerce has a tremendous work ahead of it. It must demonstrate that Wilmington is the most advantageous and important port on the South Atlantic coast. It must be shown to the world that Wilmington is the premier distributing point for several Southern States and many point in the West and Middle West. A get-factories scheme must be launched and the city's advantages and opportunities for manufacturing enterprises and industries of all kinds must be heralded abroad. The unrivalled adaptabilities of this region for trucking and agriculture, involved in its climate and soil, must be made known in an effective way.

There are just a few hints of the immense amount of work that can and must be done for Wilmington, and the best part of it all is that no rival city can furnish such opportunities for publicity as can be picked up any day in and around Wilmington. We have the goods in all the lines of city making and all that is required is intelligent exploitation to bring results.

When Wilmingtonians plank down the money and unite in the plans to make Wilmington, they will realize the radical difference between the hot air that builds a castle and the work that builds a city.

WIRE TAPPERS HEADED OFF.

The New York World of Monday tells of the successful test of a wonderful new invention in connection with telegraphy. Hudson Maxim is the inventor, and the device is one by the use of which telegraphic messages can be sent simultaneously over two widely separate and distinct wires, each impulse going in proper sequence into one receiving instrument at the destination of the message.

The test was made in the World telegraph office, and messages were exchanged with the St. Louis Post-Dispatch, the test being exhaustive and successful in every particular. The advantage of the discovery is that it makes it impossible for wire tappers to get a message sent by means of the Maxim invention. The test was made in the presence of many interested in scientific achievements, and representatives of the army and navy were in attendance to observe the experiment. The military men at once recognized the practical value of the invention, which, they declared, will protect messages sent by the government and by the army and navy, which have to employ cipher codes to guard against leaks in transmission.

General A. R. Baffington, representing the army, declared: "If we had had this device during the Civil War history would not have recorded the story of many important confidential messages getting into the hands of the enemy. To me it seems to insure the inviolability of wire service."

Most of the political issues sprung on us are discoveries made by some politician who thinks he has found something that will make him famous. Even Colonel Roosevelt thinks some of his policies are living issues.

A Civil War celebration in New York on Sunday, April 23rd, shows how the veterans of that bloody drama have thinned to a mere handful. Out of the 1,400 Irishmen who enlisted in the famous 69th Regiment, April 23, 1861, only 20 of the grizzled veterans turned out to a celebration at St. Patrick's Cathedral. The New York World says they are all that is left of the "fighting Irish regiment," and to do them honor the present 69th Regiment is this week giving the survivors a series of entertainments.

CURRENT COMMENT.

Iowa has increased its income by eight millions of dollars by the careful selection of seed corn. That's proof that agriculutral education pays. On with the farm life schools.—Raleigh News and Observer.

The South is maintaining and advancing its position as the great progressive section. Since the fifteenth of January a hundred and forty-eight new banks have been organized in ten Southern States.—Raleigh News an Observer.

The Wilmington Star on its own authority issues an injunction against further dissensions in the North Carolina congressional delegation. We think this is the same thing as riding to a fall, as far as the injunction is concerned.—Charlotte Observer.

Farmers are going on with Spring plowing. Good prices for cotton and other farm products has the effect of making farm life attractive and profitable. Present indications are that the farmers of this county will plant larger crops on better prepared land than ever before in the history of farming. The land will be so well prepared for cultivation that neither excessive dry nor long wet spells will have the destructive effect of former years. So much for scientific methods of farming; it means larger yields per acre and less drudgery in the life of the farmer.—Wadesboro Ansonian.

For one, we are glad that the anti-saloon league is taking a stand in favor of enfrocement of the prohibition law. It was beginning to look as if the prohibitionists were thinking that their part was done when the passage of the law was secured.—Durham Herald.

Two Salisbury barbers went to New York last week to secure a number of female barbers for that town. Instead of getting shavers they got shaved. A sharper who met them on the train "showed them the town." When he got through they found they had been relieved of all their money. How they expect to get home is not stated. Female barbers, by the way, do not seem to make much headway in this part of the country. Several attempts were made some years ago to introduce them in Greensboro, but it would not work. In some of the cases the women were fine barbers, but the trade was not brisk and they left.—Greensboro Record.

A writer in the Charleston News and Courier notes that "at the recent annual banquet of the National Geographic Society, in Washington, the menu included a new tuber in the vegetable list called 'dasheen' belonging to the same class as the 'calladium Esculentem', known by us locally as the 'tanyah.' It was received with great favor and apparently much enjoyed by the majority at the banquet, but the main point to which especial attention should be called is that this vegetable grows best in alluvial soil—such as our rice fields—and these particular 'dasheen' were grown in just such ground, on the eastern bank of our own Cooper river, and the yield was said to have been between ten and twelve tons to the acre. A point in favor of the 'dasheen' is claimed in that, while the starch content is slightly larger than in the potato, the starch grains are much finer, probably giving the 'dasheen' the advantage in digestibility." It is said that two metropolitan hotels have entered orders for a supply of the 1911 crop of dasheen. But what occurs to us is, that this new seacoast product may be Colonel Tom Clawson's hog potato. Anyhow, the colonel ought to investigate if for no other purpose than in an effort to refutate the reflection cast upon his intelligence by the Maxton Scottish Chief.—Charlotte Chronicle.

The Richmond Times-Dispatch says: "The cure for all the ills from which the country has suffered in the character of its representatives in both Houses of Congress is to be found in a more active participation of the responsible citizens of every community in the affairs of their own government." This is true enough so far as it goes. The passivity of certain elements enables the pernicious activity of certain others to work their selfish will in affairs political. But the improper direction of that activity is often inspired and the fruit of it appropriated by citizens of the class which our contemporary would describe as both responsible and respectable. With scarcely an exception the leaders of the predatory forces which to an extent determine the character of our legislators and of legislation are likewise shining pillows in society, pose as primates in philanthropy, and are conspicuous in the church. Were it not for the undue influence exerted in politics by the perfectly responsible" Morgans, Rockefellers and their followers, the civic sloth of others of the "responsible" element would work little harm.

The remedy of the Times-Dispatch, in order to be effective, should contain some ingredient which, while stimulating the political conscience of the too quiescent class of which it complains, will subdue, proportionately, the demoralizing strenuousity of the eually responsible class whose sins of commission more than counterbalance those of ommission by the passive element complained of.—Norfolk Virginian-Pilot.

Washington, April 25.—Representative Hamilton, of West Virginia, introduced a resolution providing that the United States government should pay part of the public debt of the commonwealth of Virginia, existing at the time of the separation of West Virginia which is chargeable to the latter State. This is the debt the Supreme Court recently held should be paid by West Virginia. The resolution was referred to the judiciary committee.

AN AUTHORITY'S FASHION HINT TO MEN.

"The American owes his reputation for being the best dressed man in the world to the care he uses in the selection of his collars," says a prominent authority on men's dress. "No matter how well cut a man's clothes, or how fine the material, the whole effect is lost if his collar spreads and hangs loosely."

Here you find one of the reasons why the close-front collar is so very popular. It gives such a smart touch to any man's attire. There's no excuse now for a man not having a close-front as the "slip-over" buttonhole does away with the trouble of buttoning and the patented "lock-front" another exclusive LION collar feature, keeps the collar from spreading. The ALCO and EXPLORER are the preferred styles with these exclusive features.

POLICE DISCIPLINE.

Editor Star:—It is immaterial that the new city charter, respecting the civil service provision, qualifies the present police force. The provision no doubt proceeds upon the idea that the police are qualified by service, and this may or may not be true. The essential thing to good government is that the Council has power to discharge any member of the police force for cause, whether the charge be for corruption, disobedience to orders, failure to perform duty or incapacity.

The duty before the people is a simple one, and is none other than the election of commissioners who will require the police to perform their duty or hand in their badges.

ANNUAL MEETING WAS HELD

Officers of Tidewater Power Company Chosen—Additional Equipment for Power Plant Received. Other Improvements.

The annual meeting of the stockholders of the Tidewater Power Company was held yesterday morning in the offices of the company on Princess street, and reports from the officers for the preceding year were received. These reports were very gratifying, and showed that the company had made substantial progress.

The following directors were elected for the ensuing year: Messrs. Hugh MacRae, M. F. H. Gouverneur, M. J. Heyer, H. C. McQueen, James H. Chadbourn, Junius Davis, Oscar Pearsall, C. N. Evans, J. V. Grainger, C. E. Taylor, Jr., W. B. Cooper, George R. French, C. W. Worth, J. G. L. Gieschen, G. Herbert Smith, Jurgen Haar and Eduard Ahrens.

After the stockholders' meeting the directors met and elected the former officials to serve during the coming year. Mr. F. W. Dick was elected fiscal agent of the company.

Carrying out the policy of the company to equip the system in a way that minimizes possibility of stopping the electric plant as a result of accidents, a new boiler of 400-horse power has just been received and the work of unloading was begun yesterday. It was necessary to make an addition to the building at the power plant to install the boiler and other machinery being put in. The new boiler was made by the Babcock & Wilcox Company, of New York, and will make it possible to develop a much larger horse power than formerly, if it is desired, and during the heavy traffic season will relieve the strain that was placed on the other boilers. The Tidewater Power Company has engines capable of developing 2,400 horse power. An order has also been placed for a rotary, this being used to supply current to the car lines.

Work is progressing nicely on the three new cars being built and they will be ready for use by the opening of the beach season. This will give the Tidewater Power Company 18 large cars for use on the suburban line. The new cars are being built at the car shops of the company at Tenth and Orange streets.

Everything pertaining to Lumina has been gotten in readiness for the Summer season which is now only a little more than a month off. Two hundred bath rooms have been added, making the total about 400, and hundreds of bath suits have been purchased to supply the demand that will necessarily follow the change in the number of bath houses. Quite an improvement has been made on the ocean side of Lumina by removing the stairway from the center of the large pavilion and placing it at one side, thus giving much additional floor space. All of the floor of the pavilion was relaid.

In addition to the improvement in connection with the electric line and the beach, important improvements are to be made in connection with the gas plant. A large main is to be laid up Market street to about Tenth and a number of laterals will be laid up the different side streets.

ADDRESS IN ACADEMY.

Comptroller Prendergast Will be Heard by Large Audience Here.

The committee from the Wilmington Credit Men's Bureau, under the auspices of which Hon. W. A. Prendergast, comptroller of the city of New York, will visit this city Friday, were much encouraged yesterday over the enthusiasm which greeted the announcement that the distinguished New York official would speak in the Academy of Music Friday evening and that the public generally would be given this opportunity of hearing him. Being connected officially with the government of New York, Mr. Prendergast will make his public address on "Municipal Government," which is not only uppermost in the public mind just now, but which is receiving earnest, thoughtful consideration all over the country. The committee advise that all who desire to attend the speaking to secure their seats early on the evening of the lecture as the indications point to an immense gathering. The public is cordially invited There will be no charge for admission.

MEET MEDICAL SOCIETY.

Special Session to Greet Dr. W. S. Rankin, of Raleigh, Today.

Dr. J. B. Cranmer, the president, yesterday issued a call for a special meeting of the New Hanover Medical Society to be held at 12:30 o'clock today at the office of the superintendent of health at the City Hall, for the purpose of meeting Dr. W. S. Rankin, secretary of the State Board of Health, who comes to make an address this evening in the High School auditorium under the auspices of the Civic Improvement League. Dr. Rankin is one of the leading figures in the fight for better health and sanitation in the South today and it is hoped that every member of the profession will find it convenient to attend the meeting in his honor today.

Real Estate Transfers.

The following deeds were placed on record yesterday: Mary G. Croswell, of Greenville, S. C., to B. O. Stone, Sr., for the sum of $1,000 and other consideration, lot 35x150 feet, same being on the southern side of Market street, 95 feet west of Tenth. J. N. Richardson and wife to C. C. Solomon Sternberger and wife to Phoebe Merrick, for $250, lot 66x100 feet in the southern line of Marstellar street, where the same intersects the eastern line of Tenth.

THE BIG CATHOLIC BAZAAR

Arrangements Well Under Way—Many Attractive Booths and Other Features Will be Provided—Desirable Articles.

The committees in charge now have everything practically in readiness for the big Catholic Bazaar, which will be given May 2nd to 5th, inclusive, under the auspices of the Knights of Columbus for the benefit of the new St. Thomas' Catholic Church, which is an ornament to the city and one of the handsomest structures of its kind in the State.

The press committee announced last night that in addition to the general attractive decorations of the fair, there will be an old favorite, the country store, a candy booth and other booths as follows: Housekeepers', Linen, Doll, Fancy Goods, Baby and Boys', cold drink stand, cigar and cigarette stand, exhibition stand, orchestra stand, etc. A feature of the bazaar will be the disposal of a large number of really attractive things on shares. A big special will be a building lot, 33x132 feet in size and valued at $300. The shares for this enterprise will be only 25c, and the possessor of this property will be real fortunate. Then there will be a five-piece and a three-piece silver set, the first named valued at $75 and the last named $50. These shares will also go for the small sum of 25 cents. Then there will be a handsome steel range, value $60 and a gas stove, valued at $15, the shares in each of these being only 10c. Three handsome brass andirons of the value of $15 will go for the small prices. A set of solid silver spoons of the value of $10, a pair of Japanese vases worth $15, two handsome metal clocks, cheap at $25, are all being offered for 10c per share, while to the thrifty and economical nothing will appeal so strongly as five Savings Bank deposits of $5 each, the shares in which will be to all and one alike 10c each.

Then, too, there will be smoking jackets, carving sets and various other articles that will appeal to all. Shares in these articles may be purchased now from any member of the Knights of Columbus or they may be had from members of St. Thomas' Catholic church or those who want a controlling interest in the building lot may find books open at Baxter's or at the store of the Wilmington Cigar Co.

Each night of the bazaar luncheon will be served in the hall over the Tidewater Power Company's office, on Princess street, from 6 to 9 o'clock. Ice cream will be served at all hours up to midnight. There will be music and a special programme of entertaining features each night of the big fair. No better place in Wilmington to spend evenings during the week of this big fair.

BERRY SHIPMENTS LATE.

Less Than 70 Cars Berries, Against 350 Last Year.

Later reports from different points in the trucking belt indicate that the damage done truck by frosts Monday and yesterday morning was even greater than at first estimated. In some localities cucumbers and beans were cut off from 30 to 50 per cent. Frost was again reported yesterday heavy at Wilmington and Newbern; killing at Weldon, and light at Cheraw, Goldsboro and Raleigh.

The cold weather continues to hold back strawberries, and it was estimated that only about 15 cars would be gotten out yesterday. Not including yesterday's shipment, 49 cars have gone to the northern markets, thus far, 46 from the Chadbourn territory and three from the Georgetown and Western road. There is every indication at this time that the berry crop will be rushed into a comparatively short shipping season. As a usual thing, no berries to speak of are shipped after May 20th. Up to this date last year 350 cars of berries had been shipped, and they were going forward in large volume. Not in years have berries been so late as this season.

There is no way of telling this season just where the various shipments are going. This information was formerly sent out from South Rocky Mount by Mr. H. T. Bauman, secretary of the East Carolina Truck and Fruit Growers' Association, but with the failure of this organization, everything is now dark as to the movement.

WANTS HUNDRED SCHOLARSHIP

President Rhodes of Littleton College in Wilmington on Business.

Dr. J. M. Rhodes, president of Littleton Female College and one of the best known educators in the State, is in the city in the interest of the institution, and is endeavoring to secure to Littleton College an annual income of $10,000 a year for the purpose of establishing and maintaining one hundred $100 scholarships for young women not under 18 years of age who are without sufficient means to go to any other boarding school and who have completed the first seven grades, or their equivalent, of the public school course of the State in which they live. Littleton College now has a limited number of these scholarships for acceptable applicants.

The institution is located at Littleton, N. C., and is owned by a board of self-perpetuating trustees. While not a Methodist institution, the college receives the endorsement of the Methodist conference. The college has 675 acres of land, seven buildings, has its own heating and lighting plant, with hot and cold running water on every floor, and other modern conveniences.

The school is more than self-sustaining and purposes to use the benevolent funds coming to it to help young women of limited means.

A CARD.

To the Public:—I wish to assure you that the statement that is being circulated by some of my friends? that I am a "Sewerage Candidate" is absolutely false. I am in no way connected with the Sewerage Company and never have been, in any capacity. I feel that I could act as impartially on the sewerage question as on any other and if I am elected Councilman will certainly work for the best interest of the City.

LADIES NOT PLEASED.

Do Not Like Way Screen Ordinance is Being Now Enforced.

The ladies of Sorosis and others who recently made such a vigorous fight before the Board of Aldermen for the adoption of a screen ordinance are not at all well pleased with the way the ordinance is being carried out, according to the conditions they find especially at Front Street Market, according to one of them who was interviewed yesterday.

The ladies are not satisfied in that only the doors of the market house have been screened, whereas thier understanding was that the stalls and the meats and other products themselves were to be protected from flies and other sources of contamination. They find that some of the fish dealers are also very careless in screening the products that are offered to householders for sale. They say that all meats should be screened in, the stalls; that every time the doors to the market house are opened, a swarm of flies enters and there is no protection against them after they are once in. The ladies hope to do something for the health and sanitation of Wilmington, but, frankly, one of them said yesterday, there seemed little hope of accomplishing anything like what was hoped for when the ordinance was passed.

Civic Improvement Committee.

A meeting of the Civic Improvement Committee, of the Chamber of Commerce, has been called for this afternoon at 4 o'clock at the Chamber by the chairman, Mr. John J. Blair. Negro Woman Indicted.

Hattie Bland, colored, was arrested yesteday upon a warrant charging her with conducting a house of ill repute at 12th and Princess streets. She was released upon bond and has not yet been tried. It is understood that she has decided to move from the vicinity of 12th and Princess. The warrant was issued by Justice of the Peace George Harriss.

CARD FROM MR. TIENCKEN.

Editor of The Star

Kindly give me space in your columns to set myself right as it has come to my ears that it has been charged that I have made promises and have allied myself with certain factions. This I deny. Such is absolutely false. If I am elected I shall go in with clean hands and no strings tied to me. M. G. TIENCKEN.

WORK AT COMPRESS UNDERWAY

New Wharves Being Built and Storage Capacity Being Doubled—Slip Will Accommodate Two Big Steamers.

Extensive improvements to the wharves at the Champion Compress, which it is stated, will increase the storage capacity 100 per cent., and provide additional room for large steamers, is now well under way, and will be in progress for several months, the work being completed in time for the cotton season beginning next September.

While there will be a few more small cargoes of cotton from the port this season, the rush is over, and the present work, which recently began, will go on without interference. A force of about fifty workmen are now employed and will be engaged throughout the Summer, with probably in an increase in number, in order that the extensive improvements may be completed in time.

At present there are three piers at the compress, but under the changed plans, there will be only two, the third being eliminated to enlarge the storage capacity and at the same time to make a larger slip which will provide for two large steamers, while in the past only one large vessel could secure berth at the time. With the elimination of the third pier a large addition to the sheds on either side of the slip will be made, extending about thirty feet on each side, enabling the storage of a large amount of the staple on the wharves, making it more convenient and ready to load on the steamers.

In addition to the improvements stated, general repairs will be made to the wharves, which are already partially torn away, and they will be raised about 18 inches. New material will be used in raising the wharves and it will be made more substantial in every way.

PREVENTABLE DISEASES.

World's Work" for March Contains Interesting Editorial This Month.

In view of the lecture of Dr. W. S. Rankin, secretary of the State Board of Health, at the High School tonight, the following from the March number of World's Work will be read with interest:

"One of the big, strong, and conservative life-insurance companies makes this announcement in a recent issue of it monthly newspaper:

"'The ——————— does no business in South Carolina, Florida, Alabama, Mississippi, Louisiana, or Texas, nor in scores of the more or less malarial countries or parts of countries bordering on the lower Mississippi.'"

"This is published as a boast, a reason why men in other sections of the country should buy life insurance in this particular company. It is a reproach that can be wiped out. It ought to be a standing challenge to every legislator, to every public spirited citizen, in fact to every citizen in the States named. Every disease that is peculiar to these regions can be conquered by sanitation.

"And it must be said for those very states that the organized campaign that their boards of health and the better class of physicians are now making to stamp out hookworm disease is also a campaign of prevention of typhoid, of malaria, and of all other peculiarly local diseases. The central fact around which this campaign revolves is the need of sanitary privies; for it is the lack of these that causes soil pollution and keeps vitality low. These States are waking up; but every force that can be applied to hasten their clearing up is a force that makes for progress."

Set for Trial Friday—Negro Enjoyed Two Days Liberty.

Yesterday was the day set for the trial of W. G. Baldwin, the white man charged with selling whiskey to Jeff Sharpless, and also with carrying a concealed weapon, but both cases were continued until Friday. Recorder Furlong was absent and Acting Recorder George Harris presided. Some time since Justice Harriss and Mr. Baldwin had some personal differences that caused Justice Harriss not to want to hear the cases and for this reason they were continued.

Henry Black, a negro who was released from the roads Saturday, after serving a sentence for disorderly conduct, was arrested again Monday night for the same offense and was given a sententce of 30 days on the roads yesterday by Acting Recorder Harriss.

Only one other offender faced the court, a white man charged with being drunk and down. He was taxed up with the cost.

The jury boxes for use in the Recorder's court have already been prepared and the names placed therein. The sheriff keeps one key to the box and the chairman of the county commissioners the other. Manner of drawing the jury is the same as in the Superior Court. There has been no jury case thus far but one has been granted for the trial of the women indicted as a common nuisance, which trials will be held next Tuesday.

FOR GOLF CHAMPIONSHIP

Tournament to Be Held in Charleston Next Month—Wilmingtonians Will Go in Private Car.

The annual tournament of the Carolina Golf Association for the championship of the States of North and South Carolina will open at Charleston on the links of the Country Club, May 4th, and will continue through May 6th. It will probably be the largest gathering of the devotees of this wonderful outdoor game ever held in the Carolinas, and the Cape Fear Golf Club will enter a large number of players.

Interest in the event is so great here that in addition to the players, a party will probably go to Charleston to witness the tournament. A local committee is making arrangements to run a private car from Wilmington to Charleston, leaving this city on Wednesday night, May 3rd, at 6:30, and go by the way of Fayetteville where the car will be attached to the Atlantic Coast Line express and reach Charleston the following morning at 7 o'clock.

Any member of the local club is eligible to enter this tournament and those desiring reservations on the special car are requested to communicate with Mr. Milton Calder, the secretary. It is expected that fully twenty players of the local club will enter the tournament.

The Carolina Golf Association is composed of clubs throughout the Carolinas, the different clubs forming the association being as follows: Country Club, Charleston; San Souci Country Club, Greenville, S. C.; Mecklenburg Country Club, Charlotte; Cape Fear Golf Club, Wilmington; Country Club, Georgetown, S. C.; Ridgewood Country Club, Columbia; Kangua Country Club; Esceola Golf Club, Linville; Country Club, Asheville.

GAVE FINE EXHIBITION.

Many Viewed Gymnasium Work at Boys' Brigade Armory.

The gallery of the Boys' Brigade gymnasium was crowded with several hundred visitors last evening for the purpose of witnessing the gymnasium exhibition. First number on the programme was a running maize, in which more than thirty men participated and which greatly pleased the visitors, as was manifested by their liberal applause.

Following this an exhibition of the regular class apparatus work was given, including work on the long horse, parallel bars, rings, and horizontal bar. Each squad did its work in a very creditable manner. The high jumping by the juniors was also very interesting.

Masters Charlie Bell and U. C. Ellis made the hit of the evening in their acrobatic stunts. The work done by these two youngsters was very good indeed and would have done credit to professionals.

"Comedy boxing" by A. Norwood, H. Fergus, William and Randolph Saunders composed the fifth number and was laughable in the extreme. The advanced work on the parallel bars by W. R. Dosher, E. C. Dixon, H. L. Dixon and Charles Dushan, was of a very high order. The pyramid squad gave an exhibition of its work for the seventh number, forming a half dozen or more very fire exhibitions. Last event was a wand drill by members of the senior class. Brigade orchestra furnished music for the occasion, and accompanied the class in their drill.

With this event the Brigade closed the most successful year in the history of its physical department.

Reckless With Pistol.

Abram Devane, colored, was arrested yesterday afternoon upon a warrant charging him with carrying a concealed weapon and disorderly conduct. The negro was arrested at Sixth and Nixon streets in a drunken condition and it is said that he had been using his pistol in a most reckless manner. Devane will be tried by the Recorder this morning.

Healthy Mothers

The bearing of children is frequently followed by poor health for the mother. This supreme crisis of life finding her physical system unprepared for the demands of nature, leaves her with weakened resistive powers and sometimes chronic ailments. This can be avoided if Mother's Friend is used before the coming of baby, and the healthy woman can remain a healthy mother. It is the only remedy that perfectly and thoroughly prepares the system for healthy motherhood, and brings about a natural and easy consummation of the term. Women who use Mother's Friend are always saved much suffering when the little one arrives, and recover more quickly, and with no ill effects, or chronic troubles. Every expectant mother should safeguard her health by using Mother's Friend, thus preparing her physical condition for the hour of motherhood. This medicine is for sale at drug stores. Write for free book for expectant mothers.

BEERS INCIDENT CLOSED.

Statement of Secretary Meyer Regarding Annapolis Affair.

Washington, April 25.—"The incident is closed as far as the Navy Department is concerned and it would seem due to the young lady and her family that they be spared the annoyance of further publicity," declared Secretary of the Navy Meyer today in a letter to Representative Korbly, of Indianapolis, in connection with the latter's request for further information on the recent incident at the Naval Academy relating to Miss Beers.

Complying with the Congressman's request for the correspondence in the case, Mr. Meyer sent him a copy of a memorandum received from Supt. Bowyer, of the Academy. The Secretary, however, declined to make its contents public.

Mr. Korbly's letter asked for the facts in the case; Mr. Meyer replied that they were as reported to th representative in his answer to Mr. Korbly's first letter.

Mr. Meyer said today that he dance was a private subscription hop paid for by the cadets.

BIG SURPLUS IN BANKS.

Reserve and Central Reserve Cities Especially Report Large Holdings.

Washington, April 25.—Bank representatives from all sections of the country indicate an enormous piling up of cash. Reserve and central reserve cities especially report large holdings.

Two conclusions are drawn from the condition by Treasury officials. One is that a slackening condition of business, ascribed to many different causes, is naturally driving the money into the banks.

The other is that the banks are beginning early to prepare themselves for late Summer and Autumnal demands of the interior. A conservative loan policy is reported prevailing in all sections, in view of the fact that the Federal treasury gives no promise of aid in the way of public deposits during the crop moving season.

Treasury officials predict that the next call on the National banks will show a continued close-hauled policy on commitments and corresponding gains in cash.

PENNY POSTAGE LIKELY.

Postmaster General Makes the Prediction for Such.

Washington, April 25.—Postmaster General Hitchcock is confident that "penny postage" is a probability of the near future, as the result of reductions in the $17,600 postal deficit which existed when he took charge of the Postoffice Department.

He has made a statement to this effect in acknowledging letters received regarding the postal situation.

Madame Labadie in "Gossip."

Last night at the Academy of Music, Madame Labadie was heard in an interpretation of the Spanish play, "Gossip," by a fair sized audience but not by half the size that should have heard this woman of such remarkable personality.

Madame Labadie is a woman of great magnetism, and the minute she appeared on the stage everyone was all attention, and she held this attention until the reading was over. Her voice is remarkable in its wide range of tone, its great sweetness, its depth at times and its lightness at others. At the beginning of the reading Madame Labadie described the scene so very realistically, that one could almost see it themselves. Then she named the different characters in the play.

"Gossip," the play, is the translation of a Spanish drama, which deals with the destructive work of what "they say," and goes on to show what harm can be done by those two little words as quoting some one else and not coming out and being specific.

The reading was thoroughly enjoyed, and those who did not hear it missed an excellent clever piece of dramatic work, and several were of the opinion that the stage had lost a great actress when Madame Labadie did not take up that branch of her art. It will be received with much pleasure the announcement that another reading will be given on Thursday evening when she will read the play, "A Doll's House."

Grand Theatre.

"Grand by name,
Grand by fame;
To miss today's show
Would really be a shame.

The Grand management has talked about how comfortable and ventilated the place is and now they want to get down to the facts of what one spends, the small sum of five to ten cents for and what they see; the Grand gives one more pleasure and amusement for the price they pay than any other motion picture house in the South or North, the management says as they show three reels of pictures that are no back numbers, every one of them focused on the screen are entirely new. The Grand also gives opportunity to hear good singing in either ballads or comic songs, by the vocalist, Mr. Baldwin. Today he has selected as his feature number the famous song, "The Sea is My Sweeheart.' For an encore he will sing, "Carrie, Mary, Harry," a great Patter song. The orchestra at the Grand is a feature and nobody gets tired while the pictures are in motion. The Grand is still getting the crowd and want you and your children to join in. Doors open at 2 P. M. and continue until 11 P. M.

At the Bijou.

With a jammed theatre all night and a big and delightful bill, yesterday went down as another big one in the annals of the ever-popular and superlative attractive Bijou. The matinee audiences were also record-breakers for size, and the pleasure afforded the hundreds of ladies and children was of the finest type. In the film, "Easter Eggs", presented yesterday the children found something that they enjoyed hugely. All the other films were splendid, while Mr. Frank Banks' singing made the usual big hit and the new selections on the giant orchestral electrical piano were flatteringly received. The films presented are always the latest and best, the music superb and the equipment the most modern, while the theatre is ventilated by Nature itself, the arrangement being such as to permit full sweep of pure, fresh air into the theatre. For today the Bijou has another swell offering, made up of the very best in every department. Fun will play a large part in today's programme.

At Joyland.

The programme for today was more than was expected by the patrons of the little Market street Theatre, and as the usual bill has gotten to be so excellent it will pay one to keep his eyes on the programme. The best way to miss nothing is to go every day and you will get the habit. The bill is composed of the best comedy drama that it is possible to get. Mr. Reilly will be on the bill with something that is of the best and will entertain in his usual charming manner.

Crystal Palace.

There are several performances at the Palace this week that are attracting unusual attention. Miss Sadie O Neil the California Nightingale, not only presents an act the most pleasing of vaudevilles entire variety, but one of the best of its class on the stage. Her artistic singing of popular numbers is being enthusiastically applauded and Miss O'Neil toured the North and West as a feature vocalist with several concert bands and only recently entered the vaudeville field. Billy Ossman, black-face comedian, is clever and interesting. Little Audrey is amusing in the recent hits "Honeymoon Glide" and "Winter." The hit of the week, though, is the four-round boxing match of the Shrier brothers. They are good, scientific boxers and give a lively encounter.

Benefit of Tileston Orchestra.

The management of "Joyland" has kindly consented to give a percent of the proceeds Friday for the benent of the Tileston Orchestra, one of the features of "school life" at the Wilmington High School. The orchestra is composed of only High School students including Edna Crair, leader; John Wells, business manager; Leonard Merriman, John Perdew, Edna Lanier, Green Fenley, Charlie Granger and Bryana Whitlock This orchestra plays each morning at the opening exercises of the school and do credit to themselves and the school. There has also been a special programme arranged by the management including, two illustrated songs and three special reels.

The admission will be 10 cents.

CARNEGIE TRUST CO.

"Uncle Andy" Testified Before Grand Jury at New York.

New York, April 25.—Andrew Carnegie testified today before the grand jury as to his relations with the defunct Carnegie Trust Company, which adopted his name but with which he has had no connection aside from financial assistance rendered when the institution found itself in difficulties and appealed to him.

In the collapse of the institution, it is said that vast sums of money which Mr. Carnegie loaned it have been tied up and it is believed that during the hour and ten minutes he was before the grand jury he related some details of these loans and was asked to what extent he had promised further aid. He was questioned in connection with the printed but unconfirmed statement that State banking officials had hesitated to close the trust company when they first learned of the impairment of its capital, because of an alleged understanding that Mr. Carnegie would see the institution safely through, as matter of personal sentiment. It is understood that Mr. Carnegie contradicted rumors that he had made such promises.

STEEL CORPORATION EARNINGS.

Quarterly Report Shows $23,519,203 to March 31st.

New York, April 25.—The quarterly report of the United States Steel Corporation for the period ending March 31st last, issued today, shows earnings of $23,519,203, and net earnings of $20,001,817. The gross figures are considerably below popular estimates and compare with $25,990,978 in the previous quarter and $37,616,870 in the corresponding quarter of 1910. They are the lowest, in fact, since those of the same quarter in 1909, which were $22,921,268.

Because of the low earnings and various heavy expenditures, including dividends, interest, etc., the surplus net income for the quarter is reduced to $31,155 as against $11,532,531 in March of last year.

All the outgoing officers were re-elected at today's meeting with the exception of Vice President W. B. Dickson, who recently tendered his resignation and whose successor was not named. The regular quarterly dividends of 1 3-4 on the preferred shares and 1 1-4 per cent. on the common involving payments of $12,658,700, were declared.

UNSETTLED DAY FOR COTTON

Early Decline Was Recovered and Near Months Made New Records for the Movement—New Crop Positions Quiet.

New York, April 25.—The cotton market was nervous and unsettled today, but an early decline was recovered and near months made new high records for the movement in the afternoon, with the close steady at the advance of 3@6 points on the old crop and two points higher to one point lower on later deliveries.

The opening was steady at a decline of 9@11 points on old crop positions and of 5@6 points on the new crop, under more or less general realizing or liquidation, and local bear pressure, which was encouraged by a reaction in Liverpool and the favorable showing of the weather map. Offerings were very well taken around the initial figures, however, and while a rally of 5 or 6 points was lost during the middle of the day, owing to a temporary withdrawal of support and a renewal of local selling, the market soon firmed up again, reaching the highest level of the day and movement in the late trading when July sold at 15.21, or eight points above the final figures of last night, and there appeared to be very little for sale. The close was within a point or two of the best.

New crop positions were relatively quiet all day, owing to the favorable character of the day's weather news, although the official forecasts suggested unsettled conditions for several sections tomorrow, as though foreshadowing the approach of wet weather and lower temperatures from the northwest, as suggested by the long range Government predictions of earlier in the week. Leading bull brokers were liberal buyers here on the declines, and there was considerable support from some of the large spot people and the rally in the late afternoon had the assistance of bullish spot advices including rumors of further sales from the local stock. Private cables from Liverpool attributed the setback there to realizing by bulls, but the English spot sales continued liberal and there was no change in the news from Lancashire. Preliminary crop reports published this morning by a local trade paper indicate a substantial increase in acreage in the States of Florida and Louisiana, as well as increased use of fertilizer, but claim that it is still too early to report on Mississippi, although there may be some reduction of acreage in the boll weevil sections of that State.

Receipts today, 7,550 bales, against 9,609 last week and 12,940 last year. For the week, 40,000, against 51,933 last week, and 68,172 last year. Today's receipts at New Orleans, 1,533, against 3,864 last year and at Houston 1,100 bales, against 2,445 last year.

Spot closed quiet. Middling uplands, 15.15; middling gulf, 15.40; sales, 34 bales.

Cotton futures opened steady and closed steady.

PROGRESS IN STOCK MARKET

Pressure Directed Against Stocks in Last Few Days Relaxed—Operations on Long Side Carried on Boldly.

New York, April 25.—Some progress was made in the direction of higher prices on the stock exchange today, despite the fact that the pressure which has been directed against stocks in the last few days was not relaxed. The market displayed strong powers of resistance and after a period of weakness, which followed the opening, rallied and held firm.

Fluctuations were significant only of the temper of professional operators, however, that element making up almost the entire market. Operations on the long side were carried on more boldly, on account of the belief that liquidation had ceased for the time and heavy buying at the lower prices established in the first hour brought about the upturn speedily. A large part of the day's business again centered around United States Steel. Trading in the shares constituted nearly one-third of the total, many fair-sized blocks changing hands. The quarterly statement of the steel corporations was appointing, estimates of the earnings having been in the neighborhood of 28,000,000, as compared with $23,519,000, shown in the report. The unexpectedly small figures for the quarter were explained largely by the January earnings, which were less than $6,000,000. Activity and strength of the copper shares during the last two days, and reports of huge sales of the metal were followed today by the statement that one of the largest agencies had reduced its selling price of copper from 12¼@12¾. It is understood that large sales were made at the lower rate. Accumulation of the copper stocks at advancing prices, continued today.

Amalgamated Copper gained a point and American Smelting one and a half. The Harriman shares were affected adversely at the opening by the ruling against Southern Pacific in the Oregon land case, but Southern Pacific, which lost a point, quickly recovered and Union Pacific was one of the strongest stocks at the close.

High grade bonds continued in good demand. The successful flotation of the $10,000,000 Seaboard Air Line bond issue by the underwriters was announced as was the sale of $10,000,000 4 per cent bonds of one of the subsidiary companies of Louisville and Nashville.

The bond market was firm. Total sales, par value, $3,189,000. United States bonds, unchanged on call. Total sales, 270,500 shares.

BETTER STENOGRAPHIC SERVICE.

Did you ever notice that your stenographer does better work early in the day than she does toward night?

This is probably the reason: At the tip of each finger, close to the surface, is a sensitive nerve terminal.

Now, the constant pounding that is necessary to get action from the stiff, heavy keys of the ordinary typewriter soon tires her out. You can overcome this daily "three o'clock fatigue" by taking advantage of joicing that the other has no less than himself.

MONARCH LIGHT TOUCH

Compare the Monarch with any other typewriter and note the difference.

"Let us hope that the year we commemorate as the anniversary of a great event in our religious history may also be remembered as the year in which a solemn renunciation of war as a means of settling their disputes was made by two mighty and kindred nations, grateful to God for the light, more precious than the wealth and power which he has given, and grateful also for the peace of nearly a century, which has subsisted between them."

President's Letter.

The following letter from President Taft was read tonight to the meeting in Carnegie Hall in celebration of the Ter-centennary of the King James translation of the Bible:

White House, March 7, 1911.

'To the Ter-centennery Celebration of the King James Version of the English Bible:

"I desire to express my deep interest in the recognition which is being taken in this country of so notable an event as the Three Hundedth Anniversary of the King James Version of the English Bible.

"The publication of the Version of the Holy Bible Scriptures in the year 311 associates it with the early colonies of the English people upon this Continent. It became at one the Bible of our American forefathers. Its classic English has given shape to American literature. Its spirit has influenced American ideals in life, and laws of government.

"I trust that this Celebration may continue and deepen the influence of the Bible upon the people of the Republic."

Bishop Greer a Speaker.

Elbert A. Brinkerhoff, vice president of the American Bible Society, opened the meeting and introduced Bishop Greer, who said in part:

"The publication of the Bible, the 300th anniversary of which we are assembled here to celebrate, was not only a great literary event; it was also a great moral and religious event. It liberated the people of the Anglo-Saxon races from superstitious fears."

When the bishop had concluded the audience, led by a chorus of 100 men and women, sang: "How Firm a Foundation." James Wood, of the Society of Friends, read the Scripture from a first edition of the King James version, printed in 1611, of the treasures of the American Bible Society's literary.

AS TO CAROLINA BONDS.

Protest Against Listing Them on New York Stock Exchange.

New York, April 25.—Edward L. Andrews, of this city, who has identified as counsel for various committees of bondholders, has written a letter to the New York Stock Exchange authorities protesting against the listing of proposed bond issues of the States of Mississippi and North Carolina. He charges that Mississippi has sold several hundred thousand dollars worth of the issue in quetion, but declines to pay the first coupons on the ground that the bonds were illegally issued or to repay the money expended.

Because of his alleged default in the case of Mississippi and of previous alleged defaults in North Carolina's case, he seeks to oppose the extension of further credit to them. His letter became public here today.

EVIL INFLUENCE CONDEMNED.

Immoral Plays, Divorce and Other Things Passed On by Catholic.

New Orleans, April 25.—The Federation of Catholic Societies of Louisiana ended its ninth annual convention here last night after re-electing Charles I. Denechaud president. Four hundred delegates representing 219 organizations attended.

Resolutions were adopted which strongly condemned immoral plays and publications, urged broader support of Catholic institutions and condemned divorce and other prevailing evils. This convention was the largest in the history of the federation.

CAN'T REGULATE 'PHONE RATES.

City of Louisville Loses in Fight Against High Charges.

Louisville, April 25.—By making permanent an injunction to restrain the city of Louisville from putting into effect ordinances calling for reductions in telephone rates, the Federal court here today decided in favor of the Cumberland Telephone and Telegraph Company in its long drawn-out fight with the city.

The ordinances fixed the maximum business telephone rate at $5.50 a month as against a charge of $7.50.

ASKS ONLY BILLION DOLLARS.

Chicago Negro Lawyer Sues Government for Infringement.

Washington, April 25.—A billion dollars is the modest sum that Elbert R. Robinson, a Chicago negro, seeks to collect in the United States court of claims.

The government is made defendant in a suit he has brought because of alleged infringements on patents on an electrical signal system he alleges were granted to him. Robinson, an attorney, will argue his own case when it comes up.

Cleveland, April 25.—For the first time in a decade the lid was clamped down tight on saloons at midnight when the unexpected order of Mayor Herman Baehr to the police department to strictly enforce the midnight and Sunday closing ordinances went into effect.

Flushed with their newly discovered powers, the deputies are indulging daily in debate of a character that would have been inconceivable a few months ago. No President of the United States was ever more openly criticised in the House of Representatives than Diaz has been.

It was thought that the armistice which has been made to apply to only a restricted region in the north, might have the effect of reducing fighting in other parts of the Republic. It has not. The War Department continues to receive reports of minor engagements in various parts of the Republic.

From Tabasco comes the report of a battle in which 45 rebels were slain yesterday, and from Puebla comes news that the rebels have taken possession of Acatlan, while the forces routed last week at Matamoros are reported to be raiding haciendas in Morelos.

EPISCOPAL GATHERING.

Taft to Make an Address and the Speeches Follow on Protestanism.

Washington, April 25.—Prominent clerical and lay members of the Protestant Episcopal church from all parts of the United States gathered here for the opening today of the 29th church congress of the denomination in this country. A communion service held this morning in St. John's church was addressed by Rev. Dr. John G. Murray, bishop of Maryland.

The delegates will be received at the White House this afternoon by the President and Mrs. Taft and later in the afternoon by Rev. Dr. Alfred Harding, bishop of Washington, at Mount St. Albans, the site of the proposed Washington cathedral.

The real work of the congress, which will last three days, will begin tonight with an address to the convention by President Taft and with speeches on "The Value of Protestantism."

Washington, April 25. — President Taft in addressing the opening session here tonight of the 29th Congress of the Protestant Episcopal church in the United States declared that "we have no State church, because all churches that are working for the uplifting of men and the spirit are State churches within the protection but not within the guidance or control of the government."

The topic under discussion was "The Value of Protestantism." The speakers included Revs. Dr. Brighton Parks, of New York; Selden P. Delany, of Milwaukee, and others.

GREATER SOUTH IS PLAN.

Conference of Railroad Men Held at Wahington Yesterday.

Washington, April 25.—Practically every important railroad in the South was represented at a conference here today with Anthony Brownell, president of the Century Syndicate of New York, for a nation-wide advertising of the South. Ways and Means for best placing before the public the opportunities which the South offers to home-seekers were discussed.

The campaign had it origin at the Southern Commercial Congres at Atlanta, Ga., in March. At that time Mr. Brownell addressed the Congress, on "Co-operation and Publicity" which set the delegates discussion plan for a greater South. More definite plans were formulated today. The representatives of the railroad soon will meet again when they will decide upon the best means for carrying on their campaign.

Among those at today's meeting were L. L. Lawrence, New Orleans, Mobile & Chicago Railroad; B. E. Rice, Norfolk and Southern; M. V. Richards, Southern Railway; K. T. Crawley, Chesapeake & Ohio; Charles T. Fay, Louisville & Texas; H. L. Anderson, Illinois Cenaral, and F. H. Poston, Southern Pacific.

FORTY SUITS FOR DAMAGES.

Against Two Railroads Because of Alleged Cotton Frauds.

Huntsville, Ala., April 25.—More than forty damage suits against the Louisville & Nashville and Southern railroads instituted by the American and foreign cotton dealers who lost more than $4,000,000 through the failuse of Knight, Yancey & Co., cotton brokers of Decatur, Ala., are on the docket of the present term of the United States Court now in session here.

There is small probability that the suits will be brought up for trial at this brief term of court or that the indictments against John W. Knight, managing partner of the firm of Knight, Yancey & Co., would be tried.

WON'T RISK WINNING STREAK.

Mullen Says the Operation on His Nose Will Have to Wait.

Detroit, Mich., April 25.—Because he does not want to risk the spoiling of a winning streak, Pitcher George Mullin, of the Detroit Americans, declines to adopt the advice of no less than four physicians and have an operation on his nose..

Specialists in Cincinnati, Chicago and Detroit and the club physician have all advised Mullen to go under the knife, assuring him of speedy recovery.

Mullen says after he loses a game he will have the operation performed.

MRS. WALKER GETS DECREE.

Granted Her at Newport—Husband Lieutenant Commander.

Newport, R. I., April 25.—Mrs. Nina Walker, wife of Civil Engineer James L. Walker, a son of the late Read Admiral John Walker, was granted a decree of separate maintenance in the Superior court today. Justice Baker's decision upheld a statutory charge and gave Mrs. Walker the temporary custody of her four minor children and $300 a month.

Mrs. Walker was formerly Miss Nina Chinn, of Washington. Her husband is attached to the naval training station here with rank as lieutenant commander.

LORIMER ELECTION "FIXED."

Testimony of Witness at Bribery Inquiry Yesterday.

Springfield, Ill., April 25.—During the Senator Lorimer bribery investigation today, W. H. Cook admitted that he had sent a letter to Weyerhouser and also to Wiehe in which he threatened to tell what he knew of the Lorimer matter unless they agreed to settle a fight among the stockholders of the Virginia & Rainy Lake Lumber Company. These letters were produced by Cook, who also admitted that the Edward Hines Lumber Company owned $130,000 of Cook's notes and mortgages.

Cook also testified that he and Henry Turrish, of Duluth, met Mr. Hines going through the hotel lobby in May, 1909, shortly before the election of Lorimer. "Mr. Turrish asked him," said Cook, "how he was getting on down in Washington. 'Oh,' he said, 'I am having a hell of a time. Now there is for instance old Stephenson. After I elected him he has gone down to Washington and started working there for free lumber. 'Had a terrible time getting him line up.' Then he went on and told about what a time he had with the Southern Democrats. He said he would have them all fixed up today, and tomorrow they would flop and he would have to go and fix them all over again.

"Mr. Turrish asked him how they were getting along with the senatorial deadlock, 'Well,' he said, 'it is all fixed. I will tell you confidentially, Lorimer will be the next Senator. We had Boutell fixed for the senatorship. He had promised to work to keep the $2 tariff on lumber, but, when the lumber schedule came up before the House Ways and Means Committee he was working for free lumber. I immediately took it up with Senator Aldrich and so decided that we had to have another man, a man whom we could depend on. It was decided that I should have a talk with Lorimer. I did. Lorimer has agreed to stand pat. He will listen to reason. I have got it all fixed; he will be the next senator from Illinois.' That was the substance of the conversation," Cook said he inferred it was Stephenson from Wisconsin to whom Hines alluded.

Chicago, April 25.—Edward Hines tonight said that the testimony given by W. H. Cook before the Helm committee was untrue. "The assertions are not based upon facts and are utterly unture," he declared. "As to Cook's tale about my alleged connection with the election of United States Senator Stephenson, of Wisconsin, it is absolutely untrue. The reliability of Mr. Cook's statement in the case of Senator Stephenson may be judged by the character of his statement of the alleged telephone communication with Governor Deneen.

"This man for some time has been trying to injure me, and I denounced him at a meeting of the Virginia and Rainy Lake Lumber Company March 1, at Virginia, Minn., and would not allow him to remain on the board of directors."

A FORTUNE IN BOOKS.

American Bidders Continue to Buy From Hoe Collection.

New York, April 25.—American bidders continue to take the cream of the offerings at the second day of the auctioning off of the late Robert Hoe's collection of rare books today.

The highest prices paid was $9,000, at which the original edition of William Blake's poem "Milton" was sold to George D. Smith, presumably acting for Henry E. Huntington, of California. The French edition of a Boccacio work which Mr. Hoe acquired for less than $4,000 was sold to Smith for $7,000. Miss Belle Green, librarian for J. Pierpont Morgan, paid $3,500 for a copy of "The Marriage of Heaven and Hell." by Blake.

One of the most startling jumps in a book value was taken by William Cullen Bryant's presentation copy of "The Embargo," which Mr. Hoe bought in 1888 for $24, and which sold to W. F. Wallace today for $3,350.

A romance written by Lucien Bonaparte and addressed to Madame Juberthon, whom he married in 1802, was sold to Quaritch for $1,725. This work, of which only three copies are known to exist, was bought by Mr. Hoe for 6,000 francs. Napoleon Bonaparte caused the edition to be destroyed, but three copies were preserved.

Spokane, April 25.—Irving L. Shiley refused $1,800 yesterday for his position at the head of the line waiting for the opening of the homestead entries under the second unit of Tieton canal. He said his chance was not for sale at any price. Shiley came from Illinois. He is 23 years old.

THE WELFARE OF CHILDREN.

An Important International Congress in Session in Wahington.

Washington, April 25.—The international congress on child welfare, meeting under the auspices of the National Congress of Mothers, began its session here today. Distinguished teachers, statesmen, physicians, jurists and clergymen from the world over have gathered to discuss subjects appertaining to the child.

An address by President Taft was the opening features of the welfare congress programme. Many other eminent speakers are to follow him during the progress of the convention, in which many women who have won distinction in their communities and been delegated to represent their States, will participate.

The speakers will include Ambassador Brice, Gov. Hooper, of Tennessee; Dr. Elmer E. Brown, Dr. Floyd Tomkins, and Mrs. Ella Flagg Young president of the National Education Association.

CAMMORRIST JURORS' SCHEME.

Obstructive Measures Are Alleged Because Fees Aren't Larger.

Viterbo, Italy, April 25.—The trial of the Cammorrists has been adjourned until Monday because of the illness of a juror who failed to appear when the session was to have been resumed today.

It is reported that the trial may be transferred to some other city because of dissatisfaction on the part of the present jury.

Early in the proceedings the members petitioned the court for an increase in the fees allowed them, but no response to their request has been made. Accordingly, it is said they are inclined to use obstructive measures.

If one after the other is taken sick, no further progress can be made under the present circumstances.

ONE TERM IS QUITE ENOUGH.

Arozmena of Panama Likely to Heed Arguments Opposing Forces.

Panama, April 25.—Persistent rumor that friends of President Arozmena were seking his re-election have resulted in an open letter being addressed to the executive by prominent Liberals, in which it is asserted that their party is strongly opposed to such a move.

There appears to be quite a unanimous sentiment against the policy of a second term for a President, and in view of this, it is believed that the partisans of Arozmena will abandon their activities on his behalf.

PIRATES LOOTED STEAMER.

Had to be Held at Bay With Pistols When Vessel Ran Ashore.

Shanghai, April 25.—According to passengers, who were rescued from the Pacific Mail Steamship Asia, after the vessel was wrecked on Finger Rock, Sunday, the officers had to use their revolvers to keep a fleet of Chinese pirate craft at bay while the passengers were being transferred. Directly after the Asia was abandoned, the pirates looted her. It is estimated that the total loss of ship and cargo will amount to $1,500,000.

ICE! ICE!! ICE!!!
-:-YES-:-
ICE! ICE!! and ICE!!!

One might almost be led to believe that this community had never seen Pure Ice until this good year 1911.

A great man once said "there is nothing new under the sun" and this is so to a great extent when it comes to the manufacture of ice.

Now, as a matter of fact, The Independent Ice Company has been for ten years and is still making as pure, as clean, as healthful to use ice as can be found in all North Carolina. We defy anyone to prove to the contrary. Our prices are as low as the lowest. We give full guaranteed weight. Our service is the best Wilmington ever had. We have a polite, accommodating corps of officials who will thank any one to report any act of neglect or discourtesy on the part of our wagon drivers or helpers.
